

Capability Statement

MeetCaregivers provides trained and licensed care professionals to support the independence, comfort, and safety of seniors and those with special needs both at home and in health facility settings.

Our CNAs, HHAs, LPNs, nurses, and other healthcare workers provide different levels of care and assistance to seniors and individuals with special needs, including companionship, daily activities, and end-of-life care. In addition to in-home support, we partner with healthcare organizations to meet the demand for skilled and unskilled professionals and through our marketplace provide care products to support both healthcare facilities and individuals.
